WATCH FOR "THE WELCOME"!

Elos Society Reorganises As Fraternity

Non-Fraternity Group Organized by Wilbert Nix Takes Name
Psi Chi Omega

Psi Chi Omega is the name of the eighth fraternity to be granted a charter on the Lawrence campus. Psi Chi Omega, formerly the Elos Club, a non-Greek letter men's social organization, was granted a fraternity charter by the faculty Monday Nov. 10.

Elos was founded Sept. 28, 1923 by Wilbert Nix, '26. At the opening of school this fall the society bought a house at 670 Oneida Street, where the fraternity is now quartered.

The officers of the new fraternity are: President, Lawrence Houle; vice-president, Hanford Johnson; secretary, Albert B. Hunter; treasurer, Forrest W. Muek. Charter members of Psi Chi Omega are: Lawrence Houle, Maurice Mais, Raymond Feind, William Kiesling, Clarence Klug, James Colburn, Wilbur Beiser, Hanford Johnson, Glenn Peart, Wilbert Nix, Ben W. Huberty, David Peterson, Laughlin D. Hall, Ben Williams, Forrest Muek, Edward Clayto, Albert Hunter, Donald W. James, Maurice Peerenboom, Wayne Williams, ex '27, Gilbert Stark, ex '27, Christian Vinger, ex '26, Harold Cripe, ex '26, and Waldemore Anderson, ex '27. Prof. G. C. Cast is a faculty member of the fraternity.

When Does An 'Ad' Advertise?

Do you know a good advertisement when you see one? Lawrence students will be given an opportunity to exercise their judgment as to what constitutes an attractive "ad," because of the interest taken by Mr. W. J. Booth, manager of the G. R. Kinney Shoe Co., in the work of Mr. C. L. Dyson's class in advertising.

Mr. Booth has offered three prizes for the best advertisements written by members of the class for the Kinney store. First prize is ten dollars in gold, second prize a pair of Kinney shoes, and third prize a pair of stockings. Each of the 20 students of advertising will submit copy for an advertisement before November 13. These efforts will be judged by a committee composed of Mr. Booth, Mr. Dyson, and a member of Mr. Booth's staff. The best six or eight will be selected and will be run as a full-page ad in the "Lawrentian" for November 20.

With each small advertisement there will be a detachable ballot on which every reader of the Lawrentian is asked to register his choice of the ads, using the effectiveness of the work as a standard, and to drop the ballot in the box which will be provided on the first stair landing in Main Hall.

Talks on Sherwood Anderson

Sherwood Anderson, his life, his works and the place he holds in present day American literature, were discussed by Walda Rusch, '25, before members of the English club at their meeting Monday afternoon. Miss Rusch read excerpts from his Autobiography, his most recent work, and showed why he is considered one of the leaders of the new school of American writers. An informal discussion of Sherwood Anderson followed her paper.

At the business session, Kenneth Stone, '26, was elected to membership in the club.

Students! If you have the right school spirit, you'll cooperate with the athletic department by getting your reserved seat tickets early for the Hamline game. The tickets will be on sale at Belling's drug store, or may be obtained from Coach A. C. Denny and Miss Lora Miller.

Students are requested to enter the field by the north entrance.

Expect Great Year For Glee Club Men

This year's glee club under the direction of Dean Carl J. Waterman promises to be among the best in the history of the college, according to Mr. Waterman. Already he is beginning to round a group of about fifty members into shape for a season filled with brilliant prospects. From this squad a final club of approximately forty members will be picked to make the two tours which are being arranged.

According to Wayne Parker, '26, who will manage the club campaign this year, no definite itinerary has been arranged as yet. Work is progressing, however, and the probable schedule of concerts will include many new cities as well as most of those which the club regularly makes each year.

First Trip in February

On February 16, the vocalists will set out on their first voyage, according to the present plans. This will probably open at Stevens Point, and from there they will make a ten day trip including Marshfield, Wausau, Antigo, and Rhinelander, Wisconsin; Iron Mountain, Escanaba, and Menominee, Michigan; and Marinette and Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Again on March 24, the club will start on a longer trip which will probably include Fond du Lac, Watertown, Fort Atkinson, Madison, Janesville, and Beloit in Wisconsin. From Beloit the warblers plan to invade Illinois, and sing at Rockford, Belvidere, Elgin, Aurora, Joliet, Chicago, and Evanston. Then back in Wisconsin the circuit will be completed with Kenosha, Racine, Milwaukee, Sheboygan, and Manitowish.

Miss Last Year's Soloists

The loss of the complete personnel of last year's soloists will be felt this year. Miss Lucille Meusel, soprano soloist who was with the club last year was highly appreciated at every performance. George Mechelson, who for four years was baritone soloist with the club, and who was a popular favorite in every community where the organization was known, is graduated. Bernard Behnken, who for several years added a pleasant variation to the program with his solo work on the euphonium will also be absent. Another instrumental soloist who added much to the program of the last two years is Harry Sisson. His high type of work on the violin made him a favorite among Lawrence music lovers.

Training Well Under Way

However, Dean Waterman is not

Eminent Singer

Substantial tributes to the art of Reinald Werrenrath, the distinguished American baritone who is to appear here at Lawrence Chapel on November 18, under the management of the Lawrence Conservatory of Music, may be found in any paper.

He is one artist upon whom there seems to be no difference of opinion. His consummate art never seems to be open to question. One of the most interesting comments on his singing was written by W. J. Henderson, music critic of the New York Sun. "His singing," said Mr. Henderson, "rests upon the firm foundation of good technique. He has no difficulty in developing the play of interpretation. He can do what he wishes with a voice which ranges from big ringing volume to the most delicate head tones. His phrasing is always poetic as well as musical and his diction beyond praise. And—this is the secret—he has imagination."

Other numbers on the local Artist Series course are the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, the noted Russian Symphonie Chorus, and a joint recital by Bronislaw Huberman, violinist and Tandy MacKenzie, lyric tenor.

Season tickets may be purchased at the Conservatory now. Prices: $4, $5, and $6.

doubtful but that he can fill the places of these individuals with talent equal to if not surpassing that which has left. He began his training at the beginning of the school year this fall with the result that the club will be trained even more thoroughly than ever before when they begin their first itinerary.

"The Tormentors" Reorganize for Year

HAROLD JENS
President

MAXINE HELMER
Secretary-Treasurer

RUSSELL SPOOR
Vice-President

"Something new on the Lawrence campus" is "The Tormentors," a club formed expressly for the promotion of student literary and dramatic endeavors, which was founded last spring by students interested in campus productions, with the co-operation of Prof. F. W. Orr and President Samuel Plantz.

According to Harold Jens, '25, president, enthusiastic support was given the new club before the close of the last school year, but due to the graduation and absence of a large number of its charter members, new talent is now needed for what promises to be a well-rounded year of activity.

Present Members of Club

Members of the Tormentors at present are: Harold Jens, '25, president; Russell Spoor, '25, vice-president; Maxine Helmer, '25, secretary-treasurer; Isabel Wilcox, '25, Enid Jarret, John Wilcox, and La Vahn Maesch, '26, John Fischedick and Burton Manser, '27. Faculty members and advisers are Professor Orr and Prof. Frank W. Clippinger.

Under the guidance of Professor Orr and Professor Clippinger of the rhetoric department a full program is planned this year, which, with proper support, may culminate in an elaborate revue to be staged in the spring. This would be a welcome and lively innovation at Lawrence and would call upon the services of many students of dramatic talents. An Appleton business men's club has already asked the Tormentors to present an entertainment at their banquet on December 10, for which a program is being formed.

May Produce Scenery Here

To make possible more frequent dramatic productions, Professor Orr is considering the establishment of a small workshop for the construction of scenery to be used. This economy would permit a variety of complete presentations and give valuable experience as to the artistic requirements of stage settings.

The club officers are very desirous that students who are interested in creative writing and the practical technique of the drama should hand in their manuscripts,—plays, short stories, poems, essays, or musical compositions. These may be submitted to Harold Jens or Professor Clippinger, and will be considered as applications for membership.

Pledge Funds

$165 was pledged for homecoming in chapel, Wednesday. Donations were offered by the various fraternities, sororities, classes, and other campus organizations. The money raised will be used for the banquet, publicity, and other expenses. Carl McKee was in charge.

THE WELCOME Homecoming Special

is going to be one of the meanest pink sheets you ever saw! Theta Sig and Pi Delta are going to put out an "extra" that will be a knock-out! Here are some of the reasons why you can't be without a copy!

Homecoming program — THE WELCOME will contain the only program of events for the week-end.

Alumni news — THE WELCOME staff is getting advance news of returning alumni and is writing up just as many interesting stories of old and recent grads as can be packed into the pink pages of the special.

Sports — THE WELCOME will be a complete and authoritative dope sheet, with last minute write-ups on the game and on individual Lawrence and Hamline players, summaries of the foot-ball season, forecasts of basket-ball prospects, etc.

In Olden Times column will trace the athletic history of Lawrence from its beginnings when Main Hall was the whole cheese and the wolves howled around the campus at night.

The Dust Pan is going to provide a clean campus for the Homecoming — no sweepings will be allowed to escape.

As a souvenir of the week-end, THE WELCOME, with its programs, summaries, and provision of good looking cuts, will be the high spot in your memory book.

TO BE SOLD ONLY BY AUTHORIZED NEWSIES, AT 10c PER COPY.

WILL BE RELEASED AT NOON SATURDAY.

Young People Here For Religious Meet

Over 600 young people between the ages of 16 and 23, representing Sunday schools in all parts of Wisconsin, held their annual conference in Appleton, November 7-9. About 150 local delegates were present at the convention, which formally opened Friday evening. The sessions were held in the Congregational and Methodist churches, and at Lawrence Memorial Chapel. The Older Boys' and Older Girls' conferences have been held separately until this year, when it was decided to unite the two organizations. Discussion meetings took place frequently between the lectures for the purpose of promoting organized class work.

List of Prominent Speakers

Among the principal speakers were Dr. P. W. Hayward of Chicago, Superintendent of the Young Peoples' division of the International Council of Religious Education; Reverend R. A. Waite of Chicago, associate director of the American Youth Foundation; Dr. M. A. Honline, Pasadena, author and lecturer of international reputation; Reverend M. D. Van Buskirk of Oneida, Ill.; Mrs. Antoinette A. Lamoraux, advisor for girls; Miss Edith Towne of Oshkosh; Mr. F. S. Shattuck, Neenah; Dr. Wilson S. Naylor, Lawrence College; Mr. Judson G. Rosebush and Mr. Frank J. Harwood of Appleton. Dr. Honline spoke on the subject "Science and the bible" at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon and the conference closed with a union meeting in Lawrence chapel Sunday night.

The German Club will meet Monday, November 17, 1924, at seven o'clock in the Athena room in the library. It will NOT meet on Tuesday, November 18.

Offer Prizes For Reunion Decorations

Fraternity Houses, Floats Are Entered in Competition for Homecoming
Awards; Crowds Returning

Dean Mary Louise Brown, Dr. John Mae Harg, Mrs. Mark Catlin, and Dr. O. P. Fairfield will act as judges for the awarding of the homecoming prizes on Saturday for the best float in the parade; the most cleverly decorated fraternity, sorority, or campus club house; and last but not least,—for the most unique campus flivver entered in the parade.

Following the mass-meeting in the gymnasium Friday night, at which several alumni and members of the foot-ball team will speak, will be the traditional torch-light parade. The members of the team will be conducted through the downtown streets in automobiles furnished for the occasion. All the students are expected to march in the parade by classes.

The freshmen and sophomores will vie with each other on Saturday morning to determine what class numerals shall be placed on the Junior rock.

As a special feature, the ball to be used in the game with Hamline will be dropped from the sky above Lawrence field by an airplane just before the kickoff on Saturday afternoon.

Special home-coming decorations will hold sway throughout Appleton over the week-end. Main Hall will be decorated as never before with drapes of blue and white, and the dome will be flooded with great searchlights. The grandstand at the field will also be draped with the colors. Downtown merchants are co-operating in the matter of decorations, and store-windows and streets will flaunt holiday dress.

Saturday morning the Pi Delta Epsilon—Theta Sigma Phi homecoming edition of the Lawrentian will be out. This edition will be devoted to sports for the most part, with pictures of star players and teams, and alumni news.

Following the game, a banquet will be held at Brokaw Hall for all football "L" men, graduate "L" men, and members of the athletic board.

The festivities will close with a dance given by the alumni at the Armory in the evening, for all students and guests.

Hugh Black's "Friendship" was the subject of a talk by Margaret Bussey, '27, at a meeting of Athena Saturday night in the Athena rooms. Florence Gray, '25, sang two selections and a short business session followed.

Honorary Sorority Delegate Returns

Jean Jamison, '25, Reports National Convention of Mortar Board

Jean Jamison, '25, president of the Lawrence chapter of Mortar Board, honorary society for senior women, returned Monday from the annual convention of the society, at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. One of the most interesting points brought out at the convention was the fact, according to Miss Jamison that in a great many chapters, altho not at Lawrence, the student body selects members to Mortar Board, and the active chapter makes the final decision. Here the active chapter does its own selecting.

The convention went on record as advising the chapters not to elect girls as recognition of service in school but rather for future promise of leadership.

Amend Constitution

Miss Jamison's report included information about two important amendments which were added to the constitution. One was that each chapter should have a committee of faculty members to act in an advisory capacity.

The committee is to be selected by the local chapter and the members may be either men or women. The second amendment was that only accredited American Association of University Women schools would be permitted to petition Mortar Board.

The general sentiment of the convention was for expansion in state universities, large schools and small selective schools, rather than the usual type of small college, said the delegate.

Famous Chemist Speaks

Dr. Edwin Slosson, author of "Creative Chemistry" was one of the best-known speakers at the convention. The next convention of Mortar Board will be held in the summer of 1926, in a western college, probably Oregon.

Local members of Mortar Board are Jean Jamison, Mary Bennett, Florence Hector, Dorothy Rohrer and Margaret Lahr, all seniors.

Class of '27 Plans First Class Dance

The first of the class dances is to be given by the sophomores on the evening of Friday, November 21, in the Crystal room of the Conway hotel. G. Bernard Behnken's eight piece orchestra has been secured to furnish the music for the occasion.

The rulings concerning the eligibility to class dances is that one of the couple be a member of the class that is furnishing the dance. This was the system that was followed last year and according to all reports it met with approval and justified the departure from the old principle.

A coincidence lies in the fact that last year the sophomores were the first to take advantage of the new ruling, and this year the precedent is being followed by the present class of '27.

A general committee is in charge of the preparations under the chairmanship of Philip Sutherland, '27.

Cream City Alumni Hear Plantz at Annual Dinner

Dr. Samuel Plantz was the principal speaker at the Lawrence alumni banquet which was held at the Republican House, Milwaukee, Wisconsin on Thursday, November 6. Herbert Heilig, '22, acted as toastmaster for the evening. The speakers, all Lawrence graduates, were E. W. McCrary, '85, L. P. Denoyer, '01, Leigh Hooley, '23, and Myra MacInnis, '20.

The banquet is an annual affair and is held at the time of the convention of Wisconsin teachers.

Dr. G. C. Cast and Dr. Louis Baker of the Lawrence faculty attended the convention.

SPEAKS ON BUSINESS WOMAN

Mrs. E. A. Cowling, of Elgin, Illinois, state president of the Illinois business and professional women's club, spoke in chapel on Monday morning on the woman in business.

"Any woman who earns her own living is a business woman," said Mrs. Cowling, "and if she makes her work artistic, she makes it also a profession." She discussed three questions arising from the presence of women in the business world. In answer to the question, "Do we want women in the business world?" Mrs. Cowling said that her work should not come before home ties. The woman in business must always be womanly; there is no necessity for the working woman to acquire masculine habits of smoking, and the like, said the speaker.

Plan New Award For Debate Squad

Twelve Debaters to Receive Forensic Recognition Emblems

An addition to the present list of forensic "L" awards was made by the forensic board at a recent meeting, this being that a "Recognition L" is to be awarded to any person who shall be chosen as one of the squad of twelve which will comprise the four debate teams for the coming season. A further change was made concerning the granting of a "Plain L" to the effect that at the discretion of the coaches those of the squad meriting further mention will receive this award.

In addition to these changes, a forensic "L" is awarded to men representing Lawrence in intercollegiate debates and oratorical contests, subject to the following provisions:

1. A Plain "L" is awarded to men who have taken part in two intercollegiate debates, at least one of which must have been won. It is also awarded to orators who represent the college in any state oratorical contest and win second place.

2. An Honor "L" is awarded to men winning two debates on two different questions, and having participated in a total of three.

3. A double Honor "L" is awarded to men who have taken part in both inter-collegiate debate and oratory. He must have won either first or second place in any state oratorical contest; and must have taken part in two inter-collegiate debates on different questions, and have been a member of at least one winning team.

4. A Distinctive "L" is awarded to men who have won three intercollegiate debates on three different questions, and to an orator winning first in any state oratorical contest.

5. A Double Distinctive "L" is awarded to the winners of four intercollegiate debates on four different questions, and to orators winning the interstate oratorical contest.

Kinsman Addresses Minnesota Teachers

Dr. D. O. Kinsman addressed the Minnesota State teacher's association convention which was held in St. Paul last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, in which he dealt with various subjects before the meetings of the various departments of the convention.

"Citizenship" was the theme he discussed before a joint meeting of the history, economics, and citizenship departments. He also addressed a meeting of the history department on the subject "Teaching of Economic History" and spoke to the civics department on the subject of "Citizenship" as it applied directly to their courses.

Dr. Kinsman appeared on the program with several other prominent speakers among whom were President Bryan of the University of Indiana, Normal Angel, English author, and Zona Gale of literary fame. The program was attended by over 6000 teachers of Minnesota.

Ormsby Hall will keep open house for all faculty, students, and alumni after the Homecoming game on Saturday. Plan to come and meet the alumni who are back.

Letters Of a Lawrence Co-ed

Dear Jane:

Because Father has to pay most of the bills at Christmas time he usually feels that he should get more attention than the rest of the family. Well, I think so too, so I do my shopping early for him. The Fair Store has loads of things that are suggestive for gifts to please one's father. There are shirts of striped madras, of broadcloth in powder blue, of pongee in natural colors. Handkerchiefs of linen, either with initials or featuring striped and barred designs always make lovely gifts. Leather bill folds are very serviceable and Dad can use a couple of those. I'd like to select Father's ties all the time, so I purchased a few of them lest he go astray in choosing them himself. There is a varied assortment in silk-knitted ones of green, brown, blue and lavender. Silk ties come either in flowered or striped designs. One can always use hosiery and here there is a selection of men's wear in silk, silk and wool, wool and mercerized. Leather gloves, silk-knitted scarfs, bathrobes, are only a few of the many things shown and one can get a good idea of what to buy for any one of the men of the family.

A Full-Dress Oxford for the College Man $8.50

When one talks about the dainty, satin-slipped feet of the feminine sex, one is apt to forget that men have to be equally well-shod at party and dance. Heckert's are showing a patent coat-skin oxford that is ideal for formal occasions.

This particular kind of leather is more pliable and less apt to crack than the ordinary patent. A light-weight sole, kid quarter-lined inner part, and a heel made hollow in order to reduce the weight on the shoe are some of its attractive features.

A dull leather calfskin is made in the same style as the patent oxford and is equally good for dress wear.

Good looking silk hose are a necessary requisite for this shoe. Heckert's have a full line of men's silk hose, full fashioned or seamless.

Who has the keener eye for beauty, the masculine or the feminine sex? The riddle seems to be solved when one counts the number of men, who stop to gaze admiringly at the "Beatrice" studio window. But admiration is not only restricted to the men. Scores of women stop for a moment to catch this vision of a transported bit of gay Paris, a tiny piece of fashionable Fifth Avenue. Cleverly arranged lights cast a soft glow on the blue velvet of hangings, rugs and furniture. A million stones of a veritable rainbow of color, reflect their light from rhinestone bracelet, brooch and comb. Necklaces of amber, of pearls, of Baccaratite conjure up visions of an Indian rajah's treasure. Elizabeth Arden's preparations, tied with pretty pink ribbon and set in an imposing array on the tables suggest milady's dressing table. Lovely dainty piles of silk negligee make the co-ed sigh longingly. The whole is perfectly fascinating and certainly deserves a moment's reflection.

President Plantz Speaks to "Y.M.-Y.W." Meeting

Dr. Samuel Plantz addressed the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at a joint meeting last Sunday night. He urged the men and women to participate in religious activities on the campus.

"If we are to grow into men and women of faith and spiritual power, we can only do so by keeping in touch with spiritual things, and by entering into the religious life of the college," declared President Plantz.

The speaker deplored the fact that too many people are so engrossed in social pleasures and secular interests that they have no time for spiritual activities. "Every power of man decays through disuse," said he. "If you neglect the voice of your conscience and continually push it aside it will soon cease to function. The person who utterly neglects his relation to God and renders no form of Christian service will soon find that his spiritual endowments will decay with him."

Deplores Indifference

Dr. Plantz depreciated spiritual indifference. It is his opinion that we can grow spiritually as well as mentally as we take our college course, provided we give part of our time to such attainment.

Miss Lorna O'Neill, '27, contributed to the meeting with a violin solo.

at this service were Lawrence Houle, and Harold Jens, '25, John Barnett, George Christensen, and Reed Havens, '26. After the service the Pi Deltas adjourned to the Congress Cafe where a lunch was served. Plans were informally discussed for the special homecoming issue of the Lawrentian.

OFFER PRIZES TO DRAMATISTS

Young writers of dramatic talent will have a chance to win recognition in the prize play contest given for 1924-25 by the Pasadena Center of the Drama League of America. A prize of $100 will be given for the best full evening play and $50 for the best one act play. Plays submitted must be original and manuscripts must be in the hands of the judges by Feb. 1, 1925. Those interested may obtain full information from the announcement on the bulletin board in Main Hall.

On this especial week-end, the Lawrence co-ed should look particularly beautiful. For who knows but your last year "thrill" may be down for home-coming. The Dunne Beauty Shoppe makes a specialty of marcel waving. And before you get your marcel you need a shampoo in soft water that makes your hair lustrous and fine. A facial massage that insures you keeping your youthful freshness of complexion; a manicure to make your hands lovely, and you will be ready to compete with the original Venus herself.

EXPLORING Whitman's PLEASURE ISLAND

Have you forgotten the way to Pleasure Island?

It's a land that children enter easily, at a moment's notice. But most grown folks have lost the chart. Some of them even doubt that there is a Pleasure Island.

Here, in this storied box of chocolates—Whitman's Pleasure Island Package—is proof that the glamor of romance still lives—it gives to the dreamer's vision "a local habitation and a name." Pleasure Island is real.

So explore this pirate's chest. Lift the tray, packed with treasures from tropic shores, and feast both eyes and palate on the contents of the money bags beneath. Surely chocolates were never so sweet and so suggestive of their rich background of history.

Pleasure Island Chocolates are sold everywhere, in nearly every neighborhood, by those selected dealers who supply Whitman's Chocolates—each one of whom receives his supplies direct from Whitman's.

"On Choosing Chocolates," "Samplers Old and New," two illustrated booklets, either, or both, of which will be sent on request.

HAVE YOU SOMETHING TO SAY?

THE LAWRENTIAN welcomes contributions in the form of letters or articles from students, faculty, or alumni.

We should like to run a "forum" in which our readers may express their opinions upon any subject from cabbages to kings. We make two requirements for every contribution which we print:

1. Every letter must be signed,
2. In all matters of fact, the article must be accurate.

The discussions need not be held to campus subjects exclusively; they need not always be profound, nor always frothy. We prefer brief articles, and we are not prejudiced against a good literary style and cleverness of expression.

Send your contributions to the Lawrentian office, Main Hall, marked "Contributors' club."

December 1889: "We present in this issue the portrait of our new president, Dr. Gallagher. We hope that our readers will consider themselves introduced and call around, as soon as possible, in order to become better acquainted with the genial and able man who now occupies the most important position which the Methodist denomination of this state can offer."

April 1891: "There has been some talk of organizing a Tennis Club. It is a good thing, let it be pushed through. The courts could be laid out on the Campus."

"Our observatory will be pushed right through this term, but it is not thought that the building and equipment will be ready for the use of the students until next term."

"We are glad to see that our need of a gymnasium is recognized in the Lawrence University Message for March."

"On Saturday evening, March 21st, the College Band went out on its first serenading trip. The boys are doing very well and their leader and drum major are gaining in notoriety. The band has procured torches and we shall expect to hear them quite often this term."

Advertisers Talk in Dyson's Class

Three more of the series of practical talks instituted by Mr. C. L. Dyson in his classes were recently given by Mr. George Dame, Mr. F. L. Agrell, and Mr. H. G. Post.

After each talk, a period of general discussion is held, in which the members of the class ask questions pertaining to the special branch of the subject being studied that day. According to Mr. Dyson, fine results have been achieved by this method of practical instruction. The talks will continue throughout the remainder of the course, which lasts for two quarters.

Mr. Dame of the Novelty Boot shop spoke to the advertising class Tuesday, November 4, on the special advertising problems confronting the retail shoe dealer.

Old Indian Relics Given To Museum

An excellent collection of Indian stone implements has been added to the museum of the American history department, under Dr. McHarg, through a gift by Burton Manzer, '27.

This collection includes many interesting pieces, some of which are in an excellent state of preservation. The largest is a heavy piece of stone, naturally ridged, probably used as a hammer or war club "to mash the head of man or beast," as Dr. McHarg put it. There is a collection of some twenty arrow heads, perfect in shape, which the donor picked up on the north east shore of Lake Winnebago. Another head was picked up on the shore at Waverly Beach—showing what may be found at that beach if one keeps his eyes open.

That the site of this city was once the domain of the red man was proved by Mr. Manzer's find of some excellent specimens of pottery in a Indian mound in the valley near the "Green Patch" in the vicinity of Prof. Farley's home on the Terrace Garden road. Lawrence students, too, were not the first to use the "Down River" paths for there Mr. Manzer found a flint drill, which is included in the collection.

The interesting historical collection of the department is rapidly growing in size and value through contributions such as Mr. Manzer's.

Relic Added to Museum

The latest addition to Lawrence museum is a rusty iron cookstove said to be the first one in Appleton, and was brought here in 1884 by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buck.

The stove was obtained through the efforts of Dr. Plantz when the Bottensek estate was settled. It was brought to Appleton by Mrs. Bottensek's mother who is reported to be the first white woman to come to this city.

Former Journalism Head Does Magazine Reviews

Dix Harwood, former head of the department of rhetoric and journalism at Lawrence, now a graduate student at Columbia university, is at the same time doing writing for various periodicals. His review, "Our Presidential Candidates," appears in the November issue of "The Bookman." "In contrast to the usual hurried assembly of biographies and political sketches which have been published frankly as campaign material," says Mr. Harwood, "You Takes Your Choice," by Clinton W. Gilbert, with its discussion of the three presidential candidates, may be classified among those books which attempt to report only what the author sees."

Students Cast in Home Talent Plays

Another proof of the dramatic talents of Lawrence students is manifest in their inclusion in the casting of two Appleton home-talent plays.

Agnes Keller, '25, and Maurice Peerenboom, '27, took part in "Rising Generations," which was presented this week November 9, 10, and 11 at St. Joseph's Hall; and Evelyn Long, '28, and Harold McGillan, '24, will take part in "Clarence," which is to be presented at Columbia Hall, November 16 to 17.

The former play was put on for a benefit fund for the new sisters' home at St. Joseph's parish, and was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bannister; while the latter is being put on by the Columbia Club of St. Mary's parish and is under the direction of Miss Ruth McKennan.

It is a coincidence that the setting of both plays is that of a turbulent household. "Clarence," by Booth Tarkington, is the story of a bashful war hero who is employed by a wrangling family, and who succeeds in putting things right. "Rising Generations" concludes the family spats of three generations.

Zussman to Coach Girls' Basketball

Lawrence girls are getting started on the "biggest and best" basketball season that Lawrence co-eds have ever had. "Let's back our Alma Mater and show the world that we're out and out to win," is their slogan.

John Zussman, '26, one of the best basketball men that Lawrence has ever had, is coach of the women's basketball teams this year. According to a statement made by Mr. Zussman the teams are to be well organized and the girls will have to work hard if they expect to make the squad.

Regular practice hours have been arranged at 7 p.m. on Tuesday and 9 a.m. on Saturdays. The first practice was held last Tuesday night but owing to the fact that it was not publicly announced, another "beginning" practice will start next Tuesday night. All girls wishing to try out are expected to be there promptly at seven o'clock.

The fact that the work is entirely according to girls' rules is one of the big features in this year's program, and assurance has been given by Miss Lora Miller that it has gained the hearty support of the college officials. With the progress made last year toward an all-college team, the 1925 squad should show good results.

Many '24 Alumni Become Teachers

Forty four alumni of the class of '24 were placed as teachers in Wisconsin and Michigan schools according to the files of the college committee on appointments. Dr. Mursell, head of the Department of Education, this number represents over ninety-five per cent of the class who wished to teach. Stoughton heads the list, employing three of the latest class to leave Lawrence. Waupun comes next with two. Thirty-nine other communities each have one of the class of '24 on their faculties.

The Lawrentians who have entered the teaching field include: Ozro Premo, who is teaching at Abbotsford; Yvonne Fourniere, Manistique, Mich.; Idele Huelsether, Ellen Kinsman, and Alice Lyons, Stoughton; Olga Smith, Menasha; Hilda Eiler, Appleton; Laura Sievert and Ina Dunbar, Waupun; Marjorie Nichols, Shawano; Ruby Jorgenson, Reedsburg; Gertrude Kaiser, Waupaca; Roy Grignon, Marinette; Mary MacDonald, Fox Lake; Merle Gribble, Columbus; Dorothy Ramsey, New London; George Meehalsen, Janesville; Myra Buchman, Gladstone, Mich.; Carl Swartzlow, Ironwood, Mich.; J. E. Hansen, Oshkosh; Martha Brose, Gladstone, Mich.; Catherine Cheverton, Mancelona, Mich.; Ruby Johnson, Tomahawk; Mary Hambley, Shiocton; Naomi Oberweiser, Pulaski; Ada Immel, Viroqua; Iva Hutchinson, Winneconne; Jenifer Kremerick, Milwaukee; Beulah Larsen, Stevens Point; Theodora Taras, Chetek; Vivian Viel, DePere; Kathryn Williams, Walworth; Mildred Schneider, Prairie du Sac; Allan Hackworthy, Fond du Lac; and George Christoph, Neenah.

"Oz" Premo, "Vamp" Grignon, and "Nig" Christoph have charge of the coaching of the football teams in their respective schools and reports indicate that these men, who while at Lawrence helped win fame for the Blue and White, on the gridiron, are turning out teams which are making respectable records, both for themselves and for their coaches.

Hannum Urges Foreign Service

Opportunities for foreign service along lines apart from religious work are becoming more and more plentiful, according to Mr. Robert H. Hannum of this college who has had many years of such experience.

The field of education alone, he says, offers many possibilities for work in foreign countries, especially in India, China, Japan, and other countries of the far east. One may teach for a short term, which is usually for two or three years, or may have a contract for life-work. Teaching in foreign high schools and colleges does not necessarily include the education of natives, but rather the instruction of American and English students, the children of missionaries or business men abroad.

"American industries in the Orient are anxious to employ Americans who understand their line of work," said Mr. Hannum. Engineers, agriculturalists, journalists and business men are especially needed abroad. Ministers and missionaries can, of course, secure employment through the various denominational boards and the Student Volunteer organization.

Foreign Language Not Essential

"The American Consular Service will employ people who specialize in commerce, and who have an acquaintance with the Spanish and French languages. In most countries, however, a knowledge of the language is not essential for educational purposes, since all the classes are conducted in English."

That teaching abroad is every bit as interesting as here in America, was the statement of Mr. Hannum, who has taught at Allahabad, India, for a number of years before coming to Lawrence. Besides his educational work there, Mr. Hannum had charge of a dormitory of sixty-five Brahmin boys, all sons of Brahmin priests. Mr. Hannum said he felt that his experiences abroad were exceedingly valuable to him. The opportunity to travel during the vacation periods alone was worthwhile. He spent several of his summers hiking through northern India, once visiting the Kashmir region, and western Tibet.

Will Give Information

Mr. Hannum will be glad to see anyone who wishes to know more about employment in the various foreign countries. The opportunity that such service gives one to bring education, democracy and Christianity to the people of these countries makes it a very popular vocation.

Talks for "Y"

"We Americans spend the most where our interest lies," said Dr. D. O. Kinsman, speaking in behalf of the Y. W. C. A. drive, in his talk in chapel Tuesday, November 4th. "We are Christians only in so far as our commercial interests will allow." He then cited statistics which proved that much more money is lavished on useless luxuries than is given to Christian work. After thus making the need for more funds apparent, Dr. Kinsman made a fine appeal to every student to get his heart into something worth while by subscribing in the "Y.W." drive instituted that day.

LITTLE FIVE SPORTS MID-WEST

Feature Blue Vs. Hamline In Big Game

Homecoming Crowd to See Fight Between Well-Matched Elevens

Lawrence homecoming is again to be featured by a Lawrence-Hamline football game and those of the alumni and college students who remember the battle staged here two years ago by the Minnesota Methodists, are confident that the homecoming crowd will be treated to one of the best games on the Lawrence schedule. In the fall of 1922, soon after entering the Midwest conference, Hamline was placed on the Blue and White schedule. The game that fall was Lawrence's most trying contest of the season and in the Blue victory Lawrence firmly established her claim to the Midwest championship. Last fall the Lawrentians journeyed to the stronghold of the Minnesotans and in a fiercely contested battle trimmed the Pipers 24 to 0.

Hamlinites Improve

This year, after starting the season in mediocre form, the Hamline squad has developed fast and in the game Saturday can be banked upon to show their potential strength. A Lawrence victory is by no means assured. Coach Buser has developed a strong aggressive line and although his material is a bit green, it is sure to make things interesting for the best of the Catlinmen. Probably the outstanding star of the Piper's line is a chap by the name of Pedlar, a brother of the Pedlar that was one of Hamline's most dangerous backfield men in 1922. The younger pedlar plays at guard and his playing in the Carleton-Hamline game last week was a feature.

In the backfield Buser has no such wonders as Kaplan in '22 nor Simons of last year's squad, but he has developed such stars as Christian at quarter and M'Coy at half. Christian is a veteran and caused Lawrence considerable trouble at Hamline last year. M'Coy, a shifty fellow, will also bear considerable watching, for he is a dangerous man to let get away. However, he may be slowed up a bit in Saturday's contest as he was injured when he hit a goalpost on his home field last week.

Catlin Line Weakened

The Catlinmen will go onto the field with several changes in their lineup due to the ineligibility of Cooke and Olsson. But as he has had two weeks to find and develop men for these positions, Catlin is not worrying much about a weakness in his forward wall. Gander and Hipke have been trying out in Olsson's position at center and both men look good while Holdridge, who filled Stoll's shoes at end when Jake was on the hospital list, is slated to hold down Cooke's left end.

The rest of the line will remain intact which means that Dunham and Council will play tackle and guard respectively on the left side of the line, with Packard, Stark, Kiessling and Hipke to fill in on the guard and tackle positions on the right.

Backfield Intact

In the backfield Catlin has his usual array of stars in Kotal and Heidemann for speed, while Boettcher can be used as a battering ram, with Briese used either for his speed or plunging power, and with Zussman, Nason, Feind and Nobles also ready to do their bit.

The game Saturday is the last of the home season for the Blues and a victory

Great Offense Pair—Line Plunger, End Runner

"Champ" Boettcher

No backfield is complete without a hard-hitting line plunger, and a fast, tricky end runner. It would be hard to find a better combination of men with these two abilities than that which exists in Zussman and Boettcher, half-backs on this year's Blue and White squad.

Boettcher was a star athlete in the Watertown High, having four years of basketball and football, being captain of each team for two years, and having two years of track to his credit. At Lawrence he has played football, mainly in the backfield. Boettcher has another year before graduating, and as the greatest need for veterans will be in the line next year, Coach Catlin will probably use him to fill one of the end positions. "Champ" is a line plunger, hard to stop when going good.

Zussman, also a junior, is a fast, tricky runner whose specialty is skirting the ends for long gains. "Zuss" is an all-round athlete, having won letters in both basketball and track. In high school (Appleton), he won a place on an all-state team in a tournament held at Oshkosh Normal. On the gridiron, Jake also does good work on the defense in breaking up the enemy's passes. This season, he has often taken Kotal's place in calling signals, and has done good work in directing the team at quarter.

Classes to Start Cage Practice

Class basketball practices are scheduled to begin Monday, November 17, when the Senior class will practice from 7 to 9. On Wednesday evening at 7 the Junior class will practice until 9 while on Thursday the Sophs occupy the gym from 7:30 to 9:15, with the Freshmen ending the week with a practice on Friday from 7 to 9.

Denny is desirous of having all men who intend to try for class teams out at these practices as men who do not attend the practices are ineligible for the class teams.

The tournament is to start on Monday, Nov. 24.

Mullenix to Teach in West

Dr. R. C. Mullenix has accepted an invitation to teach in the university of Southern California, at Los Angeles, during the summer session of 1925. He spent the summers of 1922 and 1923 in the same university.

will put the Catlinmen in good standing in the Midwest conference and with a victory over Beloit the week following, the Lawrentians would rest on the top of the heap.

Runners In Meet Against Marquette

The Lawrence cross country team meets its first opponent next Saturday when it runs against Marquette in a dual meet. This is the first event of the cross-country year, and the results of last week's run, when the Whites beat the Blues, insured a fast meet.

Lawrence is not expecting to win, but the runners will put up a good fight. Marquette has a very good record, having beaten Northwestern of Naperville by an overwhelming score. The University of Wisconsin beat them on points, although Shimek of Marquette of Marquette came in first. Shimek lowered the record at the University, which has stood for sixteen years, and he stands out as one of the best cross country runners in the country today.

The run will start at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning and will end at the Lawrence field just before the "Frosh," Sophomore stunt comes off. The Lawrence team will be chosen from the men that made the best showing in the practice run last week. Five of these men will compose the team:

Sorenson, Purves, Locklin, Larson, Snider, and Bredlow.

Ripon-Carroll Battle To 0-0 Tie Saturday

Carroll's Offense Repeatedly Threatens Crimson Goal; Ripon Line Holds

Outplayed but not outgamed, Coach Doehling's Crimson Fighting Devils held the Carrollites to a scoreless tie, before a Carroll homecoming crowd of about 3,000 people, last Saturday. Strong defense against the Presbyterian forward passing attack was responsible largely for the inability of the Orange men to score.

Carroll, displaying a whirlwind offense, was ever threatening the Ripon goal. Twice Carroll had the ball within two yards of the goal line. In the first quarter, Carroll was held for downs on the Ripon two foot line. Nevertheless, it was the vicious clean cut and deadly tackling of Ripon, its never-say-die spirit that stiffened a forward wall on the two foot line and took the ball then on downs from the Carrollites.

Ripon's Offense Weak

Ripon exhibited a very weak offense, of which the Presbyterian's took advantage. Its line failed to open up for line plunges and passes were blocked almost incessantly. Ripon made their yardage only once during the game.

Hofer and Sterr, Carroll backfield men, were easily the outstanding stars in the game for Carroll, featuring in long and gainy end runs. T. Olson was the plunging gainer for Ripon while Stamm, with his neat form of punting, was another Ripon stellar.

As this was the only Little Five Conference games played Saturday the percentage column reads as follows:

	W	L	T	Pct.
Lawrence	2	0	1	1,000
Ripon	1	0	2	1,000
Beloit	1	0	0	1,000
Carroll	0	1	1	.000

Beloit, Knox Carleton-In Dope-Spillers

Beloit Holds Cornell, 3-3; Carleton Trounces Hamline; Knox Spoils Coe

Sharing in the dope spilling contest Saturday, Beloit, Knox and Carleton featured. Cornell, doped to beat Beloit by two touchdowns, were given the scare of their lives when Beloit made them toe the mark for a 3-3 count. Cornell, heretofore leading the Midwest conference with two straight wins, will probably wind up the season in a tie with Lawrence or Knox instead of getting the undisputed claim she contemplated. Knox smashed Coe out of the race by winning by a score of 20-7. Coe, holding the Wisconsin team to a 7-7 tie, was helpless before the Knox aggregation on account of injuries. Carleton, doped to be on a par with Hamline, whitewashed the Pied Pipers to the tune of 21-0. Hamline, regarded now as the weakest team in the Midwest conference, will stack up against Lawrence in their third conference game of the year. This being the Lawrence homecoming event, the game will be of especial interest since it is doped that Lawrence will make its debut on the percentage column as a serious contender for the Conference title by walking away with the Hamline aggregation.

Little Five Still a Question

In the Little Five Conference the situation is still more or less a big question. Ripon's success in holding Carroll to a draw Saturday, shows possibilities of a serious upset this Saturday when Ripon meets Beloit. Lawrence leads the list with two wins and the possibility of acquiring the conference bunting, if she succeeds in squealing Beloit on November 22.

Siwash Takes Lead After Whipping Coe

By beating Coe Saturday Knox cleared her last big obstacle in the race for Midwest conference title. The overwhelming defeat of twenty to seven comes rather as a surprise. Coe had been rated very high having tied Wisconsin seven seven previously.

This puts Knox into undisputed lead of the conference. Lawrence and Cornell follow for a close second both having tie games to their discredit. Lawrence however is not out of the race yet. Her percentage is still a thousand and by winning the remainder of the games on her schedule she may yet triumph in the Midwest.

Basketball Shows Stiff Prospects

Lawrence's basketball schedule is the hardest ever undertaken by a blue and white team in the history of the school. Up until two years ago Lawrence had a schedule of eight games each year. Last year thirteen opponents were played, but this year a hard schedule of seventeen games has already been arranged. If the team comes through as is expected, Lawrence will be among the leaders in both the Little Five and the Midwest Conferences.

The teams Lawrence played on the Iowa trip last year are all playing at Appleton this year, but a trip has been planned into Illinois, the Lawrentians playing three games there. Seven Midwest Conference games have been arranged, and besides this several other games have been scheduled. Undoubtedly the feature game of this season will be the tilt against the Marquette University squad as the Hilltoppers usually have a first class team.

Only three of last year's men have been lost. Cooke is ineligible because of the new nine semester rule, while Christoph, last year's captain, is now coaching Neenah High School. 'Stew' Mills is now attending West Point, where he is out for basketball.

All Lawrentians can recall that coach Denny's team last year were fast, and hard fighters, placing third in the Midwest Conference. With Kotal, Zussman, Heideman, and Briesse, who are now playing football, and Ashman, Collinge, Hagen, Hulbert, Dawley, Groves, Clark, and Ruby, now out for basketball, Denny has the nucleus of a promising team. All these men are experienced players and are also familiar with Denny's style of play.

Start Wrestling Work-Outs

Wrestling practices under Coach Denny were started on Tuesday night of last week and a large squad attended the first work-out in the college gymnasium. Most of the men are veterans of last year's teams but there is still considerable chance for new men to show their worth and it is Denny's request that all men who are interested sign up before the end of the week.

Intra-mural medals are to be awarded this year to the winners of the championships in the respective weights.

Mr. E. E. Emme, former instructor in religious education at Lawrence, was a guest at the Delta Iota house last Sunday.

Shorts On Sports

By McIntyre

Lawrentians who enjoy cross-country racing will be in for the treat of their life when harriers from Marquette and Lawrence clash on the morning of the home-coming game and finish in front of the grandstand at Lawrence field. Marquette boasts the fastest cross-country man in recent years in Melvin Shimek of Kenosha who is a Sophomore at the Milwaukee school. Shimek broke the Inter-collegiate record for the distance a short time ago at Madison and is conceded to be the individual star of the meet.

Ripon College Days in a recent issue proposes that a clash between the Ripon Frosh and the Lawrence Frosh become an annual event of the football season. It is proposed that the contest be held on the morning of the homecoming game between the schools or at any time convenient to the two schools. Sounds interesting, and with a little more interest on the part of the students of both schools the game might become an institution.

Several of the Ripon men who attended the Lawrence-Carroll game here a week ago went home with terrible stories about Lawrence spirit. At any rate the whole editorial force of the College Days went off at a tangent and gave both Lawrence and Carroll the merry razz. And to think that we gave Carroll a lot of credit for their spirit last week. Use your own judgment about Lawrence.

Hamline is again the opponent for the Homecoming game and the battle bids fair to be one of the best contests of the Blue's season. Incidentally it is the last home contest for the Catlinmen while the game the week following is the last of the present season's schedule. The Pipers have no Kaplan nor Simon this year but the Minnesota Methodists can be depended upon to put a battle royal.

The famous old dope bucket sure received an awful wallop over the weekend and the results did not bolster Lawrence's standing in any way. Carroll, doped to cop from Ripon, played the Redmen a 0 to 0 tie at Waukesha while at Rockford, Ill., Cornell of Mt. Vernon, Ia., and Beloit, settled their battle for first place in the Midwest conference by battling to a 3 to 3 tie.

The contest at Waukesha between Carroll and Ripon has all the natives down that way talking. The game was the feature of the Carroll homecoming and was attended by a crowd of some 3,000 which included 600 natives of Ripon. And to climax the event President Evans of Ripon journeyed to Waukesha to see his team battle the Orangemen and thereby set a precedent, or we might say, shattered tradition by going out of town to see his team play. President Gansfield of Carroll also occupied a box in the stands.

McGrew Recovers from Injuries

Edward Platz, '25, has received word that his Beta brother Donald "Twitch" McGrew, ex-'23, is rapidly recovering from a fractured leg received recently in a football scrimmage. McGrew is an instructor and the coach of athletics at St. John's Military School located in Salina, Kansas.

Hold Intramural Run

Coach Denny announces that on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 19, at 3:30, an all-campus cross-country run will be held as the first event of the all-campus sports program. All men are eligible, regular track men included, and the winner of the event will be given the first intramural medal awarded by the Lawrence College athletic association.

Participants are requested to sign up for the event immediately at the coach's office.

Hold Debate Try-Outs On November 17

Push Plans for Non-Decision Year in Badger Debate Circles;
Announce Schedule

Plans for the new regime in Lawrence inter-collegiate debates, non-decision meets before neutral audiences in high schools throughout the state, are rapidly being formulated and acted upon by the forensic board, according to Prof. F. W. Orr of the public speaking department.

The next big step which will be taken here is the tryouts for the debate teams to represent Lawrence during the coming forensic season, which will be held Monday, November 17, in room 34 of Main Hall. About twenty men will compete for places on the squad. They will draw for sides and issues. Each speaker will be allowed five minutes for constructive argument and three minutes for rebuttal of the previous speaker's points. Twelve men will be chosen for the four teams.

To Debate in State Cities

A tentative schedule, subject to change if it is found necessary, has been compiled, showing the cities in which Lawrence will defend her longstanding title to the forensic supremacy of the state. During the mid-week of January 23, 24, and 25, these debates will probably be held:

Lawrence—affirmative
Ripon—negative
Lomira
Ripon—affirmative
Carroll—negative
Berlin
Carroll—affirmative
Beloit—negative
Richland Center
Lawrence—negative
Beloit—affirmative
Watertown

Either on February 6, 7, or 8, a second series will take place, as follows:

Ripon—affirmative
Lawrence—negative
Green Bay
Lawrence affirmative
Carroll—negative
Sheboygan
Beloit—affirmative
Ripon—negative
Stevens Point

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORS TO MEET IN NOVEMBER

Several Appleton students will attend the fourth annual convention of the Central Interscholastic Press association, a national organization whose membership includes student editors in 804 schools in 45 states, Alaska, Canada, Hawaii, and British Honduras, is to be held in Madison, Wis., on Nov. 28-29, under the auspices of the University of Wisconsin Course in Journalism.

The object of the association is to federate the school publications of America, to promote helpful relations between the schools of all sections, to provide a medium for the exchange of ideas, to maintain a high standard of scholastic journalism, to encourage state and sectional associations, to organize service bureaus for the benefit of school publications, to supply interesting material to the members in a monthly journal, and to provide an annual convention.

The growth of the association shows the popular demand for its services. From 63 members in 1921, it has increased as follows: 254, in 1922; 467 in 1923, and 804 in 1924. An intensive circulation campaign among 10,000 schools is to be conducted this year with the expectation of greatly increasing the present membership. Delaware, Nevada, and Wyoming are the only states not represented at present.

Practice on Flunked Frosh

The sixty freshmen who flunked the grammar examination held by the English department recently, will be used in the future as practice material for the students in teachers' English class. At present the failures are being cared for in a weekly "hospital" class which meets in Mr. Hannum's room, No. 1, Main Hall, every Monday night from seven to eight o'clock.

Individual tutoring of the freshmen will probably be done by prospective teachers, later in the quarter.

Plays in Chapel

Miss Irma Sherman, instructor in piano at the conservatory of music played two piano selections in Thursday morning chapel.

Cornelia Seim, '25, and Grace Ethier '27, were in Milwaukee, visiting, last week-end.

Discuss French Writers

The fourth centennial of the great French poet, Ronsard, was the occasion for a program on the poet at a meeting of the French club on Monday evening. The program included a discussion of the Renaissance by Choro Thurman, of the Pleiade by Rebecca Benyas, a talk on the life of Ronsard by Dr. L. C. Baker, and reading and discussion of two of the poems by Frances Ingersoll and Bernice Porterfield.
